

McMullen County

P.A.L.S.

Partners for the Accelerated Learning of Students

Who we are:

We are a nonprofit 501c3 organization. Our Purpose is to promote and assist the education of children in and around McMullen County, Texas, through partnering with the McMullen County School District and other county agencies.

What we do:

- Burning of the "M"
- Promote School Spirit
- Take Care of our teachers and staff by giving gifts or helping to buy equipment/supplies they need
- Incentive Programs for students such as Special Table and Accelerated Reading rewards
- Book Fair
- Purchase School Supplies for MCISD students who need help
- Give assistance to student clubs and organizations
- Graduation gifts and parties
- Fundraisers, which make all of the above possible!

If you are a parent, grandparent, aunt, uncle or other caregiver to a student at MCISD, then you are a member of PALS. We do not require membership dues and we understand that not everyone is able to give of their time. If you would like to support us by donating time, money or a word of encouragement, you can find out how to do that by coming to any of our meetings or by contacting us using the contact info below.

We're looking forward to a great year!
